FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Society Insurance Elects JoAnn Cotter and Nancy Hernandez to Board of Directors

Company honors retiring directors Eric Englund and Jeff Timler

Cotter is currently Vice President of Cotter Funeral Homes & Crematory, a three-generation family business located in DePere, WI. She is a retired partner in charge of financial institutions of Wipfli LLP, a large consulting firm, where she managed the financial services practice. Cotter earned her bachelor’s degree in business administration at St. Norbert College and is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Wisconsin Institute of Public Accountants. She serves on the board and finance council of the Green Bay Diocese and is also a board member of Encompass Early Education & Care Foundation.

Hernandez is the president and founder of ABRAZO Multicultural Marketing and Communication, an integrated marketing company dedicated to connecting companies and organizations with Hispanic, African-American and Asian audiences. She also serves as president of the Hispanic Collaborative, which coordinates more than 150 organizations and individuals working to further economic opportunities and representation for Latinos in the Milwaukee region. Hernandez earned her bachelor’s degree from Lakeland College and her MBA from Marquette University. She serves on the boards of the Wisconsin Economic Development Corporation, Marquette University and the Milwaukee Public Library Foundation.

Society’s board also re-elected Stephen Peterson, chairman, to a three-year term, and congratulated Eric Englund and Jeff Timler on their retirements from the board. Englund served on the board of directors for nine years; Timler served on the board for 18 years.

In addition to Cotter, Hernandez and Peterson, Society’s board of directors also includes: John F. Duwell, Susan M. Finco, Thomas J. Gross, Linda L. Newberry-Ferguson, Rick W. Parks, and Kim M. Sponem.
