Droese Wins Policyholder Service Excellence Award, Chooses Kewaskum Athletic Association as Charity

FOND DU LAC, Wis. (September 19, 2017) — Brooke Droese was recently awarded the Society Insurance Policyholder Service Excellence Award in a brief ceremony at Society Insurance headquarters in Fond du Lac.

As part of the award, Society donated $250 to the Kewaskum Athletic Association in Droese's name.

Droese, a marketing communications specialist, has been instrumental in creating and refining multimedia communications for our risk control team. These communications, which include blogs, whitepapers, flyers, webinars and web page content, are essential tools that help Society Insurance communicate effectively with policyholders and agencies.

"Brooke's efforts have helped our policyholders attain high-quality materials and training that will reduce their potential for business losses and claims," said Rick Parks, Society's president and CEO. "These materials have a tremendous impact on the positive image of Society with the policyholder."
