SOCIETY INSURANCE EXPANDS COVERAGE TO GEORGIA
Wisconsin-Based Carrier With More Than 100 Years of Experience
Specializes in Coverage for Restaurants and Bars

ATLANTA (April 1, 2021) – Society Insurance, a Wisconsin-based insurance carrier specializing in the hospitality industry, is launching insurance programs in Georgia. Society is recognized throughout the industry as a leader in providing superior restaurant and bar insurance coverage that is custom-tailored to fit the unique needs of each business.

“For more than 100 years, Society Insurance has worked hand-in-hand with business owners to provide the most meaningful coverage,” said Ryan McClone, Society Insurance vice president of sales and marketing. “Georgia has a thriving and growing food and beverage scene. We look forward to working with these restaurant and bar owners to tailor coverage that best protects their livelihoods.”

Society Insurance understands the distinct risks and challenges of protecting the hospitality industry, and offers property and casualty coverages, along with exceptional underwriting, risk management and claims handling for restaurants, bars, brewpubs and craft breweries. Society works with local independent insurance agents to craft comprehensive packages from the ground up and to provide educational materials to help clients proactively protect their businesses.

“Just like our policyholders in the hospitality industry, Society Insurance is committed to providing top-notch service and value for customers,” adds McClone.
